d. Treasurer’s report (Janice MacMillan)

i. Review of financials for 2009

ii. Janice noted that our budget for 2010 was approved by STLHE Board and is on the EDC website

iii. Janice noted that at the EDC AGM in June (at the STLHE conference), we will be soliciting member ideas for spending down our surplus

IV. ProD Activity (Alice Cassidy and Jeanette Macdonald)

a. Alice provided an overview of the new “Our Living Plan”, which builds on the previous 5-year plan, thanks those who contributed to it at the GM pro-d session held at Durham College last year, and displayed the new plan and overview on the EDC website. She introduced a process to discuss five key topics emerging from the new Plan. Jeanette invited people to choose one topic, from groups, appoint a scribe and discuss.

The key topics are:

i. Mentoring in various forms

ii. Special Institutes, e.g. for new educational developers, or to help people develop skills to be Associate Directors or Directors of Centres

iii. Resources in various forms

iv. Inter-institution connections, including sharing seminars and working with other organizations

v. Sharing and networking, especially through electronic means, including ways to share, not necessarily by email, between EDC and STLHE meetings

A summary of discussion points is posted to the website (www.edcaucus.ca)

b. We had a demonstration of the Collaboratory from Nancy Randall and colleagues from BC Campus, as one possible way of speaking to topic v. above

V. Adjournment at 2:45 p.m.
