BY-LAWS OF THE EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPERS CAUCUS OF THE SOCIETY FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING IN HIGHER EDUCATION

1. Preamble

- 1.1. The name of the organization shall be The Educational Developers Caucus, hereinafter referred to as “the Caucus” or as “the EDC”.
- 1.2. The Caucus is constituted as an organizational structure within the Society for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education, hereinafter referred to as “STLHE”.
- 1.3. The Caucus will be represented on the STLHE Board of Directors by the Chair of the Caucus.
- 1.4. As a constituent group within the STLHE, the Caucus will share in any services and infrastructure of the STLHE such as the secretariat.
- 1.5. The Caucus shall regularly report on its activities to the STLHE Board of Directors.

2. Defining and Interpreting the Bylaws

- 2.1. This document contains the general bylaws of the Caucus that regulate the transaction of business and the affairs of the Caucus. Where there is a conflict between these bylaws and the Constitution and Bylaws of the STLHE, the latter shall take precedence.

3. Mission and Aims of the Educational Developers Caucus

- 3.1. The Caucus defines itself as a community of practice with a mission to work within the aims and structure of the STLHE to facilitate the advancement and evolution of educational development as a field of practice and scholarship by coordinating communication, networking, professional development opportunities, and advocacy strategies.
- 3.2. The aims of the Caucus are:
 - 3.2.1. to strengthen the position of STLHE as the professional/academic organization of choice for educational developers, and particularly for those practicing in Canada;
 - 3.2.2. to pursue the aims of STLHE with particular attention to their application in educational development contexts;
 - 3.2.3. to provide leadership in the professionalization of the educational development role;
 - 3.2.4. to foster the advancement and evolution of educational development as a field of practice and scholarship;
 - 3.2.5. to create a national forum where emerging and problematic educational development issues can be candidly discussed;

- 3.2.6. to create a collegial network within which information, strategies, and resources can be shared;
- 3.2.7. to facilitate communication among educational developers who are members of STLHE;
- 3.2.8. to provide professional development opportunities for experienced, new and potential educational developers;
- 3.2.9. to advocate, through STLHE, for educational development issues at a national level.

4. Membership

- 4.1. Membership in the Caucus is open to members-in-good-standing of STLHE who have current, former, or imminent responsibility for the planning, organization, or delivery of educational development programmes or activities within a post-secondary institution and who support the aims of the caucus.
- 4.2. Membership shall run concurrently with the STLHE yearly membership period.
- 4.3. The STLHE shall forward a list of members who a) are in good standing and b) who have elected to become a member of the EDC and have paid the EDC membership fee, to the Vice-Chair Communications, Secretary and Treasurer on a monthly basis and on request.
- 4.4. Membership fees shall be determined by the membership at the General Meeting or by electronic vote at least two months prior to the new membership year. When possible, the Caucus will endeavour to make membership accessible by instituting lower fees for students and retirees. Fees for members residing outside Canada will be paid in a manner consistent with STLHE practices for such members.
- 4.5. Failure by a member to pay dues by March 31 of any year will automatically terminate membership in the Caucus.
- 4.6. Each member in good standing is entitled to:
 - 4.6.1. receive notice of meetings of the Caucus;
 - 4.6.2. attend any meeting of the Caucus;
 - 4.6.3. speak at any meeting of the Caucus;
 - 4.6.4. exercise other rights and privileges given to members in these bylaws.
- 4.7. Any member in good standing is entitled to one (1) vote on any motion, including the election of officers, voting to be conducted either at a meeting of the Caucus or polled through electronic communication.
 - 4.7.1. Each voting member present at a meeting shall have the right to exercise ONE (1) vote. A member may, by means of written proxy, appoint a proxyholder to attend and vote at any meeting of members, in the manner and to the extent authorized by the proxy. A proxyholder must be a member.

4.8. All official communication to the membership will take place through the medium of the private Caucus listserv to which all members will be subscribed upon payment of membership dues.

5. Meetings of the Caucus

5.1. There shall be two scheduled general meetings of the Caucus membership per year, one to be held at the STLHE Annual Conference (see STLHE Constitution, Article VII, section 2) and one at the Educational Developers Caucus Conference. One of these meetings shall be designated as the Annual General Meeting of the Caucus.

5.2. Proceedings at Meetings of the Caucus shall be governed as follows:

- 5.2.1. the members may at any time create, adopt, or amend rules of order to govern the proceedings of meetings of the Caucus;
- 5.2.2. each member in good standing has one vote;
- 5.2.3. a majority of the votes of voting members present decides each issue and resolution unless otherwise specified in these bylaws;
- 5.2.4. the Chair of the meeting does not second a motion or cast a vote and does not cast a vote in the event of a tie vote. When there is a tie vote, the motion is defeated.

5.3. Annual General Meeting

5.3.1. The Vice-Chair (Communications) informs members at least 14 (fourteen) days in advance of the Annual General Meeting (AGM) stating the place, date, time of the meeting and any business requiring a special resolution.

5.3.2. The agenda for the AGM shall include:

- 5.3.2.1. adopting the agenda;
- 5.3.2.2. adopting the minutes of the last AGM;
- 5.3.2.3. receiving the reports of the Officers;
- 5.3.2.4. reviewing the annual financial statements;
- 5.3.2.5. electing or, when such election is completed electronically prior to the AGM, ratifying the election of officers;
- 5.3.2.6. considering other matters specified in the notice of the meeting.

5.4. General Meetings of the Caucus

5.4.1. The Vice-Chair (Communications) informs members at least 14 (fourteen) days in advance of any General Meeting of the membership stating the place, date, time of the meeting and any business requiring a special resolution.

5.5. Special General Meeting

5.5.1. A Special General Meeting may be called at any time on the written request of at least one third of the voting members. The request must state the reason for the Special General Meeting and the motion or motions to be presented at such meeting.

- 5.5.2. Members must be given at least 30 days' notice of a Special General Meeting.
- 5.5.3. Special General Meetings may be held with members attending through the use of synchronous and/or asynchronous electronic communication.

6. Annual Educational Developers Conference

- 6.1. To further the aims of the Caucus as enunciated in Article 3.2 above, the Executive of the Caucus shall organize a conference each year typically held, but not limited to, the winter months, but shall have the right to cancel such conference when unforeseen circumstances, such as inclement weather, prevent a large number of members from traveling to the conference.
- 6.2. The program for the Conference shall include either the Annual General Meeting or a General Meeting of the membership.

7. Governance

- 7.1. The Executive of the Caucus shall work within the aims and structure of the STLHE to govern and manage the affairs of the Caucus.
- 7.2. Powers and duties of the Executive include:
 - 7.2.1. promoting the aims of the Caucus;
 - 7.2.2. promoting membership in the Caucus;
 - 7.2.3. preparing an annual operating budget for the coming year and seeking approval of the budget from the membership in the fall of each year;
 - 7.2.4. maintaining all accounts and financial records of the Caucus, except where such accounts and records are maintained by the STLHE;
 - 7.2.5. with the approval of the Board of Directors of the STLHE, seek funds from external sources to finance the operations or special projects of the Caucus;
 - 7.2.6. paying all expenses for operating and managing the Caucus;
 - 7.2.7. when given the authority to do so by the Board of Directors of the STLHE, approving all contracts for the Caucus.
 - 7.2.8. fulfilling responsibilities as outlined in their position descriptions, including regular attendance at EDC Executive meetings, the EDC Annual General Meeting and General Meeting. Should a member of the EDC Executive be unable to completely fulfill responsibilities including regular attendance, the term may be withdrawn and a replacement may be requested, or the member may ask to step down, and a re-election for the position may be held at the discretion of the EDC Executive.
- 7.3. The Executive of the Caucus shall consist of the following officers:
 - 7.3.1. Caucus Chair whose term of office shall be two years, with a maximum of two consecutive terms, and who shall be responsible for providing overall leadership,
