

2020 D2L Innovation Award in Teaching and Learning

The Society for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education (STLHE) and Desire2Learn (D2L) are pleased to invite submissions, from across the world, for the 2020 D2L Innovation Award in Teaching and Learning.

This award celebrates and recognizes innovative approaches that promote student-centred teaching and learning.

Awards are open to all instructors currently teaching at a post-secondary institution, regardless of discipline, level, or term of appointment. Applicants must be directly teaching students, not serving as faculty developers who have indirect impact on students. Applications in French or English are welcomed. Applicants do not need to be members of STLHE to apply. Award recipients are expected to attend the 2020 STLHE conference, while will be held in Ottawa, on June 9 – 18, 2020, and an Award Recipients retreat which will be held the day before the conference (June 8, 2020).

The Award recipients (up to five per year) receive the following:

- 1) Up to $2,200.00 to offset the registration and travel costs to attend the Annual STLHE conference and an Award Recipients retreat the day before the conference
- 2) Two year membership in STLHE
- 3) Certificate of Recognition

Deadline:

The deadline for submission of an application package is Sunday, January 19, 2020

For further details and award criteria please visit:

<https://www.stlhe.ca/awards/d2l-innovation-award/>

