

The Future Learning Lab

Description

Located on the fourth floor of the MacOdrum Library, this space is designed as a flexible inspirational learning space where students could realize their full potential through collaborative and interactive learning activities. In addition to 9,500 sq ft open space with flexible furniture set up to encourage various ways of interactions and learning, the Future Learning Lab also has several advanced learning rooms where students and instructors can engage with pedagogical innovations in experimental active learning.

Technical information

Room 1 – Active Learning Classroom (ML 481)

Capacity: 24

Classroom technology

- Two movable monitors/interactive displays
- Two projectors on opposite walls
- Whiteboards
- Mobile Hyflex cart
- HDMI laptop connections

Room 2 (ML 482)

Capacity: 100

Classroom technology:

- Projector
- Speakers and microphone
- Confidence monitor at back wall
- Roving podium with wireless HDMI connector
- Fully movable furniture (tables and chairs) that allow for different group configurations

Activities suitable for these spaces

- Cooperative and collaborative activities of any kind
- Instructor-led presentations
- Talking circle (Room 2)