

STLHE SAPES

Society for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education

La société pour l'avancement de la pédagogie dans l'enseignement supérieur

THE SOCIETY FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING IN HIGHER EDUCATION, IN PARTNERSHIP WITH 3M CANADA ANNOUNCE 2022 3M NATIONAL STUDENT FELLOWSHIP AWARD RECIPIENTS

Recognizing outstanding young leaders across Canada

3M Canada and the Society for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education are delighted to introduce the recipients of the 2022 3M National Student Fellowship Award:

- Laila Albalkhi, Computer Science, University of Windsor
- Shandon Ashitei, Biology & Gender Equality and Social Justice, Nipissing University
- Ben Tyler Boudreau, Human Kinetics/Sport Management, St. Francis Xavier University
- Sarah Freeburn, Diversity and Social Justice Studies, University of Prince Edward Island
- Oorja Gonepavaram, Bachelor of Arts (Commerce), Mount Allison University
- Anne Hung, Bachelor of Arts (English), University of Victoria
- Sufia Langevin, Secondary Education and Social Sciences, Bishop's University
- Mohamed Nashnouch, Health Sciences, Dalhousie University
- Olivia Grace Stevenson, Kinesiology, Acadia University
- Topaza Yu, Kinesiology, University of Saskatchewan

The 3M National Student Fellowship is sponsored by both 3M Canada and the Society for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education (STLHE). Founded in 2012, the Student Fellowship honours diploma and undergraduate students in Canada who have demonstrated qualities of outstanding leadership and who embrace a vision of education that enhances their academic experience and beyond.

"These students show the promise, ability and drive vital to being outstanding leaders in the Canadian post-secondary sector," said Denise Stockley, Chair of the STLHE Board of Directors. "Not only are they continuing to forge the path for their academic cohorts, but they're also broadening the road for the many who will join them in their respective careers." said Denise Stockley, President of STLHE

"The 3M National Student Fellowship recognizes exceptional student leaders across Canada who are making a positive impact in higher education. I am delighted to welcome this academic cohort who embody the highest ideals of excellence with a commitment to shaping tomorrow's future in postsecondary education," said Penny Wise, President of 3M Canada.

STLHE SAPES

Society for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education

La société pour l'avancement de la pédagogie dans l'enseignement supérieur

“The 2022 National Student Fellow recipients have shown and continue to demonstrate, an unwavering dedication and passion towards their respective academic fields and in contributing to society. These students have embraced a vision of education, that will help inspire many on their path to success. Congratulations to this year’s Student Fellows on your outstanding achievement.”

The 3M National Student Fellowship is an exciting opportunity for students across Canada to distinguish themselves as part of a unique learning community.

Each recipient receives a two-year membership for STLHE and the opportunity to develop a funded project on teaching and learning with their cohort.

This year’s cohort of 3M National Student Fellows continues the legacy that began in 2012—a legacy that we know will assist many future years of undergraduate students across Canada.

STLHE and 3M Canada will officially welcome these incredible leaders into the Fellowship at the STLHE Annual Conference which will be held from June 7-10, 2022 in Ottawa, ON.

Additional information on the 3M National Student Fellowship Award can be found at <https://www.stlhe.ca/awards/3m-national-student-fellowship/>.

Additional information about 3M Canada can be found at https://www.3mcanada.ca/3M/en_CA/company-ca/.