fellow scholars. Their contributions to the art and science of teaching have elevated the profession and will continue to shape the future of education. We celebrate their achievements and all that they do to support the growth and development of learners," said Elana Cooperberg, Chair of the STLHE Board of Directors.

"The 3M National Teaching Fellowship recognizes excellence in educational leadership and teaching in post-secondary education. This year's Teaching Fellows represent a broad range of academic disciplines and demonstrate outstanding commitment to scholarship and innovation at institutions throughout Canada," said Penny Wise, President of 3M Canada. "Congratulations to this year's Teaching Fellows. You are an inspiration to the next generation of teachers and learners who strive for excellence in higher education."

The 2023 3M National Teaching Fellowship Award recipients are not only excellent educators, but also leaders, both nationally and internationally, at their institutions and within their professional communities.

Recipients of the award each receive a two-year membership for STLHE and are invited to a retreat with their cohort to share knowledge and create synergies to continue to promote leadership and excellence in teaching and learning.

STLHE and 3M Canada will officially welcome these amazing educators into the Fellowship at the STLHE conference which will be hosted in Charlottetown, PEI from June 13-16, 2023.
